

6 November 2023

Dear Members and Friends of the Husserl Circle,

The 53rd Meeting of the Husserl Circle, will be held at Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, USA on May 20-23, 2024.

We are working under the assumption that the conference will take place in person and only in person. If you would like to be considered for presentation at the conference, please send a substantial abstract addressing any aspect of Husserl's philosophy to the address below. Abstracts should include some indication of the structure and argument(s) of the paper as well as the topic. Please note that presentations at the meeting will be limited to 30 minutes (excluding commentators and Q & A).

Please send abstracts for consideration to

HCOmaha2024@gmail.com

by January 15, 2024. Decisions will be communicated by the selection committee no later than March 1, 2024.

Creighton University is located in downtown Omaha, Nebraska, in the center of the United States, about equidistant between Chicago and Denver, and is easily reached by air (OMA Eppley Airfield) or car, and (less easily) by train or bus. There are numerous hotels within a 10–20-minute walk of campus, including several in the historic Old Market area, which has many restaurants, bars, and shops, as well as a beautiful riverside park.

We look forward to welcoming you in Omaha!

Anne Ozar and Jacob Rump
