

2025 Husserl Circle Meeting: Call for papers/abstracts

The Husserl Circle is pleased to announce its 2025 Annual Meeting, which will take place in Athens, Greece, from June 23-26, 2025, under the auspices of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. Scholars working on any aspect of Edmund Husserl's philosophy are invited to submit either a full paper with a brief 150-word abstract or a more substantial abstract (about 500 words) clearly outlining the paper. Preference will be given to full paper submissions. Participants will have 30 minutes for presentation, followed by 15 minutes for commentation and discussion. Papers and abstracts should be prepared for blind review and submitted to fvassiliou@philosophy.uoa.gr

The deadline for submissions is February 15, 2025 (12pm GMT). Decisions will be communicated by the selection committee no later than March 1, 2025.

The conference venue is located at "Kostis Palamas" Building (more information here), at 48 Akadimias St. & Sina St., downtown Athens.

Athens offers a wide range of accommodation options, from hotels to rental apartments. Although June is a busy tourist season, there will be plenty of choices. Additionally, the city is filled with restaurants, bistros, bars, shops, as well as historical sites and museums for those interested in sightseeing.

For any inquiries, please feel free to contact Fotini Vassiliou at: fotini_vassiliou@yahoo.gr.

We look forward to your contributions to what promises to be a stimulating and productive conference!

Cordially,
Fotini Vassiliou
Convenor of the 2025 Husserl Circle Meeting
